We are in the middle of the Torah in the middle of the book of Leviticus. For this prayer sheet you will see something a little different. Almost all of the scriptures are from Psalm 119! This Psalm is an Alef to Tav expression of the Psalmist's Love of the Torah of ADONAI! Psalm 119 is traditionally read during the days of counting the Omer from Passover to Shavout, a few verses each night. We are now in that seven-week period.

Acherei Mot, the name of this week parsha, means “after the death”. This refers to the death of Aaron's sons, mentioned in the first verses. We see next the extensive instructions for the Yom Kippur service carried out by the High Priest to make atonement for the children of Israel. It is a day of solemn rest, a Shabbat of all Shabbatot. We also read in this parsha about the prohibition of eating anything with blood, for the life is in the blood and it is the blood that makes atonement.

We have been given new life through the blood of Yeshua, and His ultimate, once and for all Atonement. Our Kohen Ha Gadol forever. He is the Living Word of God. He is the Passover Lamb of God. As we just celebrated the Passover and Redemption from slavery in the Exodus and freedom in Yeshua, it is a perfect time to delve into the Psalmist's verses of love —AHAVA— for the Word of God. Let us offer praise and thanksgiving for Life that is given through YESHUA as we pray these scriptures over our loved ones.
