

I will walk among you and will be your God, and you will be My people.
Leviticus 26:12

We are in the last Parsha of the book of Leviticus! God spells out the blessings for the people of Israel and the land “If you walk in His statutes”, and the curses for not walking in His statutes. Yeshua tells us in Luke 14, there will be more joy in heaven over one repenting sinner than over the ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance. Perhaps that is why the “blessings” section in this parsha is so short and the “curses” are spelled out in such detail?! God’s heart is not to punish, but rather He desires that all will repent and return to Him.

We also have a beautiful picture of how intricately His word and the Land are tied together. From Genesis where His word gave life to all things, we end the book of Leviticus reading how our actions of obedience to God’s word are even connected to the earth giving fruit!! If we do all He commands, there will be fruitfulness not only spiritually but there will be supernatural abundance and harvest for the land, and the people will be nourished!!

Yeshua is the living Word!! He entered His ministry with the message —repent and have life everlasting!!! As we pray for our families and loved ones and children, let us too become pure in our hearts as children (see prayer sheet Parsha Vayikra blurb). We are nourished with the spiritual milk of the whole of God’s Word!! Let us sing His praises on the harp and lyre! Let all that has breath Praise the LORD!
